PRAYERS FOR THE STATE OF ISRAEL

Hashem heard our prayers and the last deceased hostage was returned, Staff Sgt. Ran Gvili. Ran was among the first to enter the Gaza border area to protect civilians, and today, he is the last to return. His body was recovered in a complex and determined operation carried out by Israeli security forces, reflecting Israel's unwavering commitment to bring every one of its sons and daughters home, in life or in death. We stand with the Gvili family, who at last have received the closure they deserve, and we honor Ran's courage, sacrifice, and heroism. May his memory be a blessing. Am Yisrael chai!

THOUGHTS on parasha Beshalach

by Janis Monat

“Beshalach” is the 2nd word in our parasha which means, “when he sent forth”, referring to the freeing by Pharaoh of the Israelite people after the tenth plague killed the first-born Egyptians. Hashem soon directs the departing former Jewish slaves toward the Sea of Reeds where Adomye’s eternal might and power will be displayed once again.

This is Shabbos Shira. After crossing the Seas of Reeds, the relieved and grateful Jewish people sang a song of praise and appreciation to Hashem. Eyeing Pharaoh’s approaching army the Israelites feared for their lives. Miraculously the sea waves parted, in the nick of time, and the Jews safely crossed. Watching their pursuers drown the Jewish people broke out in song, “Az Yashir”, and our familiar “Mi Chamocha...” The Jewish people had experienced a reality in which there was nothing other than Adomye...and from their soul’s very core came words of thanks and praise to Hashem. We relive this moment during our morning tefillot, “Az Yashir”, the Song of the Sea. It comes from our parasha, ch. 15:1, “Then he (Moshe) will sing”.

What do we sing about? So often we take living for granted. It takes tremendous effort to realize that without HaShem there is no life.

In our parasha, ch. 13:19, Yosef’s bones were carried out from Egypt by Moshe as he had asked them to be, 210 years before. Yosef had been the first Hebrew to come to live in Egypt upon his brothers’ selling of him and he/his bones were the last to leave. So, too, in this week’s Tel-Aviv’s Hostage Square the last yellow chair was removed. Ron Gvili, Staff Sergeant with the Israel Police Special Patrol Unit, was one of the first to enter Gaza on 10/7 and killed defending Kibbutz Alumim, saving many Jewish lives. His body was the last of the 251 hostages to be returned to Eretz Yisrael. Both Yosef and Ran had proper burials amongst their brethren in Israel.

May we continue to praise and thank Hashem, even breaking out in song, for our lives. Because that, too, is a miracle.

A wonder of wonders, miracle of miracles... sea-splitting shabbos!
